Advertisements of cosmetic items on TV channels

2706. SHRIMATI. SUSHMA SWARAJ : Will the Minister of INFORMATION AND BROADCASTING be pleased to state:

(a) whether advertisements of several cosmetic items glorifying fair colour do not encourage apartheid policy;

(b) if so, the reasons for granting permission to telecast such advertisements on TV channels; and

(c) whether Government would take any step to ban such advertisements or to telecast them in modified form?

THE MINISTER OF INFORMATION AND BROADCASTING (SHRI S. JAIPAL REDDY): (a) to (c) Fairness creams are advertised on TV channels but they are not permitted to be derogatory to any skin complexion. However, in 2003, a complaint from NHRC was referred to the Ministry and the advertisement was prohibited from being transmitted. Reference was made to ASCI also. ASCI informed that HLL withdrew this advertisement. Thereafter, this was not telecast for a long time and then HLL brought new amended version. Fairness creams continue to be advertised on TV but so long as they are not derogatory to other complexions, they cannot be stopped from being advertised.

While no specific permissions are given for the broadcast of advertisements, complaints received against contravention of the Advertising Code prescribed under the Cable Television Networks (Regulation) Act, 1995 are enquired into. The Code, inter alia, provides that advertisements carried in the cable service shall be so designed as to conform to the laws of the country and further provides that no advertisement shall be permitted which derides any race, caste, colour, creed and nationality.
